

About Andrew

Personal: I live in Havertown with my wife and enjoy a number of hobbies including playing pool (8-ball), following our local sports teams, listening to a variety of music, writing/ blogging and reading. I was born in the Wynnefield section of Philadelphia and lived briefly in the northeast section before moving to Upper Darby where I lived until I got married. I know all too well what it is like to move!

Education: I attended 3 different elementary schools (William B. Mann and Laura H. Carnell in the city; the old Highland Park school in Upper Darby), Beverly Hills Junior High, Upper Darby Senior High and Saint Joseph's College/ University (B.S. Psychology with a Business minor; MBA in Human Resource Management). I also have extensive education credits in Real Estate, hold several designations/ certifications and teach at my local Realtor Association.

Mission Statement:

I am an experienced (since 1996) full-time agent, REALTOR, Associate Broker, Ethics/ Continuing Education Instructor and Dispute Resolution Mediator committed to my clients and to my profession, as demonstrated by my education, professional affiliations and designations/ certifications. I am certified to represent both Sellers and Buyers.

My goal is to provide my clients with outstanding service and to do so with responsiveness, integrity and reliability. I am committed to providing knowledge and representation that is both comprehensive and up-to-date. My clients deserve and will receive the finest service and I guarantee it. I want to earn your business for life and I want you to feel so strongly about my performance that you will feel comfortable enough to recommend my services to your friends, family and neighbors. This is a referral-driven business and your recommending me to others is the highest form of a compliment.
