Personal:

I live in Havertown with my wife and, in addition to my commitment to Real Estate, I enjoy a number of hobbies including: playing pool (8-ball), following our local sports teams, listening to a variety of music, writing/ blogging, podcasting and reading. I was born in the Wynnefield section of Philadelphia and lived briefly in the northeast section before moving to Upper Darby where I lived until I got married. I know all too well what it is like to move as a child, a teenager and an adult!

Carnell in the city; the old Highland Park Elementary school in Upper Darby), Beverly Hills Junior High School, Upper Darby Senior High School and Saint Joseph's College/ University (B.S. Psychology with a Business minor; MBA in Human Resource Management).

I am an experienced REALTOR and Associate Broker with several designations and certifications. I am certified by PA, NJ and DE to teach ethics and continuing education at two local REALTOR Associations, I am co-chair of our Professional Standards Ethics hearing panel and I mediate disputes between buyers and sellers as well as disputes between agents.
