Small acts of kindness make a big difference

Rockville Women's Center is here to help as women navigate an unplanned pregnancy. RWC understands that a pregnancy can be overwhelming, especially if it was not expected. RWC's professional and trained staff is here to help through this time. We will walk you through all of your options, address your questions and concerns, and provide you with the information and support you need. We strive to educate and empower our patients to make the choice that is best for you. All of the services we offer at Rockville Women's Center are provided at absolutely no cost to you.

Samaritan Inns' mission is to provide structured housing and recovery services in an environment of support and accountability that give homeless or at risk individuals who suffer from drug and alcohol addictions the opportunity to rebuild their lives. Samaritan Inns began in 1985 with one transitional home in the heart of Washington, DC, with a capacity to house 9 men desiring to overcome homelessness and addictions. Over time, Samaritan Inns procured and completely renovated eight buildings, including a few former drug havens, across Washington, DC. Every year, these buildings are home to approximately 500 men and women as part of Samaritan Inns' unique Recovery Continuum that equips these individuals to reclaim their relationships, careers, and lives.

The Woodley Gardens Waves Swim Team (WGST) was formed in 1961 when the Woodley Gardens Pool and Clubhouse opened. Since 1963, WGST has competed in the Montgomery County Swim League (MCSL) which was established in 1959 to provide organized, friendly swim team competition for children at the neighborhood pool level. The Waves team provides a competitive and supportive environment for children up to age 18 to become strong, safe swimmers while establishing enduring friendships that extend well beyond summer. In 2019, a committed group of local families worked together to form the Woodley Gardens Community Swim and Recreation Association (WGCSRA). The association established an IRS-recognized, tax-exempt 501 (c)3 charitable entity to solicit and accept funding in support of managing, maintaining, and revitalizing the Woodley Gardens Pool and Clubhouse.
